Stacey Lajoie, UMass Lowell (Sr., OF, Gardner, Mass.) -

Batted .500 (10 for 20) with 12 runs, six RBI, four walks and seven stolen bases (in seven attempts) in a 4-2 week.

Highlights include a 3-for-3, two-RBI effort with three runs in a 6-2 win over Stonehill. Also went 4-6 with five runs and three RBI in a 9-1/8-3 sweep over Saint Michael's.

Northeast-10 Pitcher of the Week

Nicole Welch, Saint Rose (Sr., SP, Albany, N.Y.) - Went 4-1

with a 1.35 ERA and held opponents to a .170 batting average last week. Fanned 18 batters and walked four in 26.0 innings of work. Went the distance in all three of her starts as well. Allowed two runs on three hits and struck out four in a 3-2 win at Assumption. Then held the Greyhounds to a pair of singles while fanning five in a 4-0 triumph Saturday morning. Tossed three innings of one-hit ball in relief to pick up the win in a 4-3 victory at Saint Anselm.

Northeast-10 Freshman of the Week

Kristen Dolan, American International (Fr., SP, Norwood, Mass.) - Was 2-1 with a 0.64 ERA and 25 strikeouts in three games last week. Scattered 11 hits over nine innings of relief in a 7-6 extra-inning win over Pace and fanned five in a complete-game shutout at UMass Lowell. Also registered 11 strikeouts in six innings against Stonehill.

Weekly Notes:

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: AIC secured its first Northeast-10 Championship appearance since 2004 after sweeping a doubleheader at UMass Lowell. The Yellow Jackets' game-two victory over the River Hawks marked the 925th career victory for head coach Judy Groff. Her career record now stands at 925-584-5 (.613) in her 41 seasons at AIC.

BENTLEY: Seniors Alex Hitchcock and Ashley DeRosa (Wethersfield, Conn.) each tied the Bentley career records for games played and started on Sunday when they played in their 167th, and should break the record when the Falcons finish their season against Franklin Pierce Monday. Also on Sunday, Hitchcock and classmate Dina Ferriero (Tewksbury, Mass.) surpassed the former school record for career at bats (500).

SAINT MICHAEL'S: Senior Megan O'Connor set the single-season program record with 32 RBI and also set the program record with 31 career doubles. Senior Ashley Harkins finished the year with 55 hits and 165 for her career, which are both new program records. She also has the single-season record of 38 runs scored, while breaking the single-season doubles record with 13.

NEW HAVEN: On Friday in the Chargers first game against Stonehill, Breanne Gleason appeared in her 112th game as a Charger and passed Jo-Lynn Cimino on the New Haven career records list. One day later, in the victory over Franklin Pierce, Gleason hit a homerun and tied Jackie Kupka for tops on the UNH record list with 17 career homeruns. The Chargers also earned their 30th win of the season on Saturday, becoming just the eighth team in program history and just the second since 1998 to record 30 or more wins in a season.

SOUTHERN NEW HAMPSHIRE: Senior Karissa Bettencourt (Norton, Mass.) became SNHU's all-time leader in runs scored with a solo home run Sunday against Saint Rose. She has now scored 76 runs. Fourth-year head coach Deb Robitaille became SNHU's winningest coach with the Penmen win in the first game against Saint Rose Sunday. She now has 83 wins, surpassing Ray Prouty, who posted 81 wins from 1981-86.
